

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

SEAN HITCHCOCK

Criminal Case No. 24-0047-JJM

GOVERNMENT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

The government moves for a six-month continuance of sentencing in the above-captioned matter. The Information in this case describes Mr. Hitchcock, Company #1, Principal #1, and Principal #2 as coconspirators in a scheme to aid and assist individuals engaged in Tech Support Fraud. Mr. Hitchcock is cooperating in the investigation of his coconspirators, all of whom are aware that they are targets in a criminal investigation. It is expected that Mr. Hitchcock will be asked to participate in future interviews with federal prosecutors and investigators and testify as a government witness in future legal proceedings. The parties believe that the requested continuance is sufficient for the government to complete the next steps in their investigation of Company #1, Principal #1, and Principal #2’s role in aiding and assisting individuals engaged in Tech Support Fraud. Defendant’s counsel, Mark O’Brien, does not oppose the continuance or the filing of this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

By its Attorney,

SARA M. BLOOM

Acting United States Attorney
